Special Memories

Friends donate pictures of Keith Farmer and Frank Powers for the junior homecoming float.

TO OUR SPECIAL FRIENDS Keith, Frank, and Michael

In appreciation for the many qualities that made you guys such wonderful friends . . .

For sharing the ups and downs of life,
for always being there to listen,
trying hard to understand and somehow knowing how to help.
For giving your time and interest
so unselfishly.

My friends, you were the sunshine of our glad days; the rainbow of our sad days — A rose among the thorns of life,
a shelter from the storms of life.
You guys were the best part of hard times,
the brightest of good times.

We offer you this expression of our love and appreciation . . .
My friends, you were God's special gift to all of us.

By: Kasie Tilley

to show his warm smile.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

I LIKE IT

According to our survey, guys actually like a girl's personality the most. Looks didn't rank very far behind though. Other attention grabbers include a sense of humor, compassion, intelligence, eyes, legs, and other parts of the human body!

The girls were most interested in a guy's eyes, just like the guy's, though, personality and humor are very important. It's easy to remember that looks can be deceiving. Other points of importance include legs, teeth (good smile), and, yes, some girls are even interested in the car you drive!

SHOULD GIRLS DO THE ASKING?

"Yes. Because of those women lib things."

"Yes. Girls have the right to pick and choose just like guys do."

"Yes. The guy might be too shy."

"Yes. If they are older and have a car."

"Yeah. If she has money so I can borrow it to pay for gas."

"Yes. Girls should start taking some responsibility."

"I'm too old fashioned and too shy. I would rather the guy ask me out."

"No. That's disgusting."

"No. Because if the guy wants to go out with her then he'll ask her out."

"No! Get back to the basics."

"No. The girl shouldn't have to have that responsibility."

JUSTIFY MADONNA

In the winter of 1990, Madonna released a controversial video for her song "Justify My Love." The video was banned from MTV and most other television media. The video was marketed as a video single, and can be purchased for approximately $10 at most stores. When asked about the video on our survey, your opinions were mixed. 56 liked it, 86 disliked, and 17 had never seen it. Here are some of your opinions.

"I think she knows what people will pay to see."
— Stephan Martin (Jr.)

"Without self-expression, people like Tipper Gore and the PMRC would run the earth."
— Michael Blevins (Jr.)

"It's very suggestive." — Brian Austin (Soph.)

"I think it's repulsive! I hate Madonna!" — Jason Fields (Sr.)

"Killer!" — Todd Stevenson (Sr.)

"Pretty steamy!" — Melanie Simpson (Soph.)

EMBARASSING MOMENTS

Embarrassing moments . . . we've all had them. At the time, the situation doesn't seem very funny, but later on it is something to look back on and laugh about. The annual staff, along with the journalism class, chose a few of the best "moments" from the surveys that were passed out.

"I forgot a chant when we (cheerleaders) went on the court during a time out. I just stood there like an idiot." — Joy Barton (Soph.)

"During wrestling season, I stripped down to my underwear to weigh in. I was walking to the scales when two volleyball girls walked in on me." — Jasper Honaker (Sr.)

"I was walking down the hall behind the library and ran right into the pole between the two doors." — Jessica Cook (Soph.)

"When I was working with the rescue squad, some people tied me to a blackboard almost nude and leaned me up against the monument in town." — Jimmy Carpenter (Sr.)

"Walking into a new school." — Jim Fiechtl (Jr.)

"When I puked in Pizza Hut." — Matt Puckett (Sr.)

"Falling off the auditorium seats at Marion High School during All-Regional Chorus." — Susan Taylor (Sr.)

"I slipped on a slick spot on the floor and wiped out." — Helena Whisenhunt (Jr.)

OUTRAGEOUS.

Colophon

The Pioneer yearbook was made possible by the yearbook staff, which is incorporated into the journalism classes. The publishing company for the Pioneer was the American Yearbook Company of Clarksville, Tennessee. Danny Boring, the company representative, worked closely with the staff and provided much assistance. Our greatest appreciation goes to Mr. Boring.

The 350 copies of the 8 1/2 x 11, 172 page book were printed on gloss paper with the base ink color of black. The cover, designed by the staff at a Josten's workshop, was a litho pictorial. Blue green, magenta, and violet were applied to the high gloss with red writing. The approximate cost was $13,000. The head type was Lydian Bold, and other copy was Lydian. Captions were 8 pt., body copy in 10 pt., sub-headings in 18 pt., and main headlines in 30 pt. Graphics for the divider pages, endsheets and folio graphics were designed by our own Jami Hay.

Olan Mills was the school photographer; however, many pictures were taken by our own photographer Mikie Gilbert.

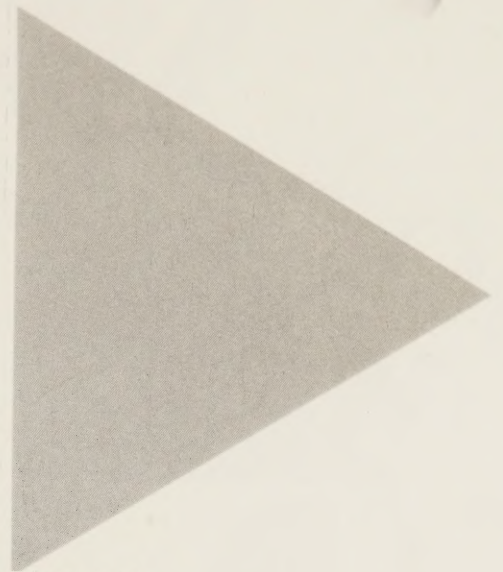

Leta Bartee and Mrs. Caroline Sabo were our advisors. Mrs. Sylvia Warner was our financial advisor.
